Your exploration of the Chianti countryside wouldn't be complete without a visit to a local winery for a taste of the famous Chianti Classico wines. Important Tour Information:

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

Italy imposes strict limits on tour bus circulation and mandatory drop-off and pick-up points, especially in historic or protected areas such as Stresa, Parma, Cinque Terre, Lucca, Greve, and Florence. These areas require navigating large crowds, extensive walking over cobblestone, uneven and often narrow sidewalks, and occasionally unpaved terrain with loose gravel.

You'll visit 2 of the 5 Cinque Terre villages, chosen based on conditions like weather and crowds. Expect overcrowding and standing in lines. Transportation includes public trains and ferries, with no reserved seating, requiring you to stand and balance.

For the Cinque Terre excursion, you must be able to walk and stand for 5 hours with only two breaks (30 minutes and 1.5 hours). The tour involves walking up to 3.2 miles on cobblestones with steep inclines and no handrails.

Ferry boats may involve standing in line for 15-30 minutes without shelter or seating, and boarding can be challenging. Ferries have limited, often dirty, toilets.

Train travel involves climbing stairs and standing in crowded spaces, with limited and often dirty restroom facilities. You will need to climb 3 one-foot-tall steps to board the trains. You must be prepared to stand in line for 15-30 minutes without shelter or seating.

The Cinque Terre villages are pedestrian-only with steep inclines and steps. Extensive exploration requires good mobility.

EXTEND YOUR VACATION WITH

Optional 4 Days 2-Night Turin & Piedmont Wine Country Pre Tour Extension

Per Person Rates: $1,499.00 USD double, $1,899.00 USD single, land only

For more information on extensions and options for this tour visit
<https://gateway.gocollette.com/link/1384891>

In Florence, you must be prepared to walk a minimum of 2.7 miles. From the bus drop-off point onwards, the tour is entirely on foot, involving up to 4 hours of walking and standing with only one restroom stop. There is no seating available, and the areas are crowded with cobblestone streets and narrow sidewalks.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

The included activities are not suitable for travelers using motorized scooters, wheelchairs, walkers, or Zimmer-frames.

In order to fully experience the destination, some of our hotels on these tours are located in smaller towns or on country roads where access is limited to large coaches. In these cases, you will be dropped off as close as possible and there will be a short walk to access the hotel from the drop-off area.

Days of features are interchangeable.

Most shops and businesses in Italy are closed on Sundays and on national/religious holidays.

*In the event of adverse weather conditions, the dinner at Isola Pescatori may be held at your hotel instead.

Isola Bella and the Borromeo Palace & Gardens are open from March 15 to October 31 (though there are small differences every year based on when the closest weekend falls). If you are traveling between November 1 and March 14, you will enjoy a scenic cruise of the Borromean Islands and a visit to Pallanza village instead. If you are in Lake Maggiore between March 15 and April 15, the Borromeo Palace might be closed mid-week.

Travel to Cinque Terre is by rail and ferryboat. The ferry boats operate approximately between March 25 and November 1, yearly. Travelers prone to seasickness should take proper precautions. If you travel to Cinque Terre between November 2 and March 24, or in case of adverse weather conditions, the visit will be operated entirely by train. Trains are subject to delays and to public transportation strikes.

*Olives are picked over a period of approximately 45 days. The exact starting and ending day depends on the weather and can vary from mid-October to mid-December.

Most museums in Florence are closed on Mondays, including the Academy Gallery and the Uffizi. Most museums in Florence require reservations to access. In order to reduce waiting in line, we suggest you reserve your ticket online prior to departure if you plan to visit the Academy Gallery or the Uffizi during your free time in Florence.

Modest dress (covering your knees and shoulders for women and long trousers for men) is required when visiting religious sites, sanctuaries, basilicas, etc.

Hotel check-in on your day of arrival is 3:00 p.m. Rooms may not be available prior to that time.

*Please note, some dates will be accommodated in countryside estates. These villas are dotted throughout the region and we use different properties on this tour. Some may be located in the countryside, removed from the city center. Others may be closer to the hustle and bustle of the region. Each one is unique, full of history, has many amenities, and is brimming with true Tuscan flavor. This is part of the fun!

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

When reserving single accommodations, be advised that single rooms in Italy are usually smaller in size and beds are usually cot-sized.

Some of the most unique sightseeing can mean accessing locations that restrict motor coaches, especially in historic areas such as Florence and Lucca.

Our arrival transfers will depart from Milan airport, and departure transfers will return to Florence airport.

To complete your tour, we include round-trip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Our air travelers will arrive into Milan airport and depart from Florence airport.

Please be advised, many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.

Economy air rate and schedule are applicable for groups of 10 or more traveling on the same flights and dates.

2 Meals: 2 Breakfasts

Day 1: Overnight Flight

You are on your way to the elegant palazzos of regal Turin and the rolling hills of Piedmont, known for its world-class wines.

Day 2: Turin, Italy

Arrive today in Turin, the first capital of unified Italy, and settle in for your two-night stay. As arrival times will vary, there is no scheduled sightseeing today, though a local host will be at your hotel to provide you with information and an orientation of the area. Spend the day as you wish, exploring the city independently. Dinner tonight is on your own.

Day 3: Turin - Piedmont Wine Country Excursion

Today, weave your way through Piedmont's wine country in the company of an expert guide. Locally called Langhe, this area combines gentle, vineyard-clad hills with quaint villages and the occasional castle dotting the landscape. Stop at Grinzane and take a stroll through the vineyards surrounding this historic castle, now home to the regional enoteca — a place dedicated to preserving and showcasing the best wines from the area. Later, visit a charming hilltop village and a local winery, where you'll tour the cellars and savor a selection of typical Langhe wines, including the renowned Barolo. Your visit concludes with a traditional merenda, a light meal of charcuterie and local cheeses, before returning to Turin in the early afternoon. The rest of the day is yours to further explore Turin on your own. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 4: Turin - Lake Maggiore

Walk through Turin with an expert guide, uncovering a blend of French and Italian heritage. Discover the city's gluttonous side as you savor its famous gianduiotti chocolates and try a bicerin — a mix of espresso and chocolate — in one of the city's cafés, reminiscent of Parisian coffee spots. This afternoon, bid farewell to Turin as you transfer to Lake Maggiore* and begin your main tour. Today breakfast will be included.
