This document outlines policies and procedures designed to advance member pursuits of holistic health and wellness. We ask that each participant take the responsibility to know and follow the policies and procedures of the Wellness Center. Adhering to this guidance ensures the facility remains a vibrant and safe place to gather, train, play, and learn.

Member Definition: Hereafter, the term "Member" shall be used throughout the policy to reference an individual who has a current, valid membership to the Blessing Wellness Center, and is currently in good standing with the Blessing Wellness Center, both financially and in conduct.

Family Member Definition: Hereafter, the term "Family Member" shall be used throughout the policy to reference an individual who is related to the main member in one of the following ways:

- a. Spouse
- b. Unmarried partner living within the main member's household for a minimum of two years (proof of residency required).
- c. Dependents of Wellness Center member (main member) age 11-26, living in the same residence as the main member (must be unmarried).
- d. Relative (immediate family member) of the main member living within the main member's household (proof of residency required).

In order for a family member to be eligible for a Blessing Wellness Center membership, the member must meet one of the aforementioned criteria. Verification of guardianship, family status, and residency may be required.

1. Admittance Policy

1.01 - The Blessing Wellness Center is for the use of Blessing Health System employees and family members, Be Well at Work members, Blessing Health System volunteers, and other authorized guests. The Blessing Wellness Center is not open to the community at large. The Blessing Wellness Center does not allow children in the facility below the age of 11. After successful completion of the Blessing Wellness Center Youth Training Program, children of Wellness Center members age 11-15 are allowed to use the facility, but must be accompanied at all times by a parent/legal guardian or an adult member whom the parent/legal guardian deems as responsible. Children under the age of 16 are not allowed to use the facility as a guest.

1.02 - With the exception of private or scheduled public events, all individuals entering the Wellness Center must check-in upon arrival.

- a. Members may check-in utilizing their personal key tag or barcode in the mobile app.
- b. All non-members must register as a guest by signing the guest waiver, and submitting required payment for day pass at the front desk. Guests of members are not allowed to utilize the facility during unstaffed hours of operation. Failure to follow our guest policy may result in membership suspension or termination.
- c. Visitors, vendors, or maintenance personnel must check-in with Wellness Center staff at the front desk.

1.03 - The Wellness Center reserves the right to confirm membership status, access authorization and the age of any individual within the facility at any time.

2. Liability Release Requirements

2.01 - All individuals entering the Wellness Center to participate in or observe any activity must first complete a Liability Release Form.

2.02 - A parent or legal guardian must complete the Liability Release Form in the presence of a Wellness Center staff member for any individual between 11 and 17 years of age. Children of Wellness Center members ages 11-15 must be accompanied at all times by a parent/legal guardian or an adult member whom the parent/legal guardian deems as responsible. With the exception of Blessing Wellness Center nutrition classes specifically for young children, children ages 10 or younger are not allowed within the facility. Children under the age of 16 are not allowed to use the facility as a guest. Liability Release Forms are not accepted from minors or third parties.

2.03 - For contracted programs and events, a designated representative may assume responsibility for procuring waiver release and ensuring waiver validity for program participants. The representative will provide the Wellness Center management a list of all program participants and a signed Liability Release Form for each guest.

2.04 - The Wellness Center is not responsible for any injury sustained while participating in any Wellness Center activity or caused by using any Wellness Center equipment. Guests are responsible for ensuring equipment is functional before use and for possessing the knowledge necessary to properly and safely use the equipment. Notify the staff immediately of any equipment malfunction or disrepair.

3. Membership Rates and Payment Options

3.01 - Membership Rates: Membership rates vary by member type. For a full list of membership types and rates, please contact a member of our Wellness Center staff.

3.02 - Membership Payment Options: The Blessing Wellness Center offers monthly memberships only. A scheduled monthly charge to a credit or debit card that continues until client termination is offered for various membership types. Cash and checks are not accepted as a form of payment.

3.03 - Personal Key Tag: Each member is photographed and provided a unique personal key tag for quick access to the facility. Lost or damaged key tags may be replaced for a fee of $5. Members are not to give their unique personal key tag to anyone else to access the facility, members or non-members alike.

3.04 - Rate Structure Changes: Management reserves the right to change the membership rate structure at any time.

4. Membership Account Administration

4.01 - Membership Hold: Members may request to hold a membership for convenience. The following rules apply to a membership hold:

- a. A written request, by email or in person, must be submitted no later than 7 days prior to the requested hold date. (Email: blessingwellnesscenter@blessinghealth.org)
- b. Membership hold duration is from 1 to 4 months.
- c. Members may perform one membership hold annually at no cost. Subsequent hold requests within 1 year from the previous hold start date incurs a fee.
- d. Annual membership expiration dates are extended to match the duration of the hold period.
- e. Monthly membership billing cycles cease for the duration of the hold period. A new billing cycle begins upon the hold termination date.
- f. Members who choose to access the facility while the membership is in hold status must remove the membership hold.
- g. Exceptions may apply in cases of verifiable sudden/serious illness or injury.

4.02 - Membership Resignations and Refunds: Members may request to terminate a membership at any time. The following terms and conditions apply to membership resignation and refunds:

- a. The membership account balance must be paid in full.
- b. Resignations will not be accepted over the phone.
- c. The member must submit in writing, a letter of resignation with one full calendar months' notice. Acceptable forms of written notice are a physical letter delivered to a staff member of the Wellness Center or an email sent to the Blessing Wellness Center email address: (blessingwellnesscenter@blessinghealth.org).
- d. Upon receipt of resignation, the member will receive confirmation by a staff member of the Blessing Wellness Center.
- e. If unable to meet the deadline and/or requirements of resignation, the member is responsible for the membership dues for the remaining calendar month (30 days) including the payment of all dues.
- f. Prepaid memberships are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- g. Members who choose to re-join the Blessing Wellness Center at a later date without settling the member account balance must pay the re-initiation fee of $25 prior to being reinstated as an active member of the Wellness Center.

4.03 - Membership Changes: Members may request to change an active membership type at any time. The following rules apply to membership type changes:

- a. The member must submit the request to change membership type with one full calendar months' notice. Acceptable forms of written notice are a physical letter delivered to a staff member of the Wellness Center or an email sent to blessingwellnesscenter@blessinghealth.org.
- b. The member must sign a new membership contract in person at the Wellness Center in order to change membership type.
- c. Changes to monthly memberships activate on the first billing cycle that occurs after 30 days from receipt of the written request.

4.04 - Failure to Pay: A member account is considered delinquent, when on the scheduled billing date, the member payment is unsuccessful for any reason, including credit/debit card declines. If unpaid dues are not paid by the last business day of the month, the member is cancelled. A member cancelled due to unpaid membership dues must pay a $25 re-initiation fee to reinstate the membership. If a member's credit card declines for 2 consecutive months or a total of 3 or more months within a rolling calendar year, the member must pay $10 decline fee to continue with the membership.

4.05 - Membership Suspension or Termination: The Blessing Wellness Center has the right to suspend or terminate memberships for violations of policies or stated rules, failure to pay dues or actions which violate any federal, state or local laws. Additionally, all Blessing Wellness Center members must abide by The Blessing Wellness Center Code of Conduct. Consequences of violations may include suspension or termination of Blessing Wellness Center access privileges. Although not all inclusive, the following list represents reasons for the suspension and/or termination of membership:

- a. Failure to pay membership fees on time or in full
- b. Continued disregard for Blessing Wellness Center policies and procedures
- c. Fighting or abusive/profane language
- d. Disregard for Blessing Wellness Center staff
- e. Use of alcohol, tobacco or illegal drugs on Blessing Wellness Center property
- f. Behavior that presents imminent danger to the individual, Blessing Wellness Center patrons, or staff
- g. Disregard for our facility, equipment or property

An individual whose membership has been suspended or terminated will NOT be entitled to a membership fee or prepaid class/program/service package refund. This includes Blessing Employee Family Memberships if employee leaves or is terminated by the organization.

If the individual has registered for a class at Blessing Wellness Center, they will not be allowed to take part in this class, and must contact the Blessing Wellness Center Manager to determine if a prepaid package refund will be provided.

An individual who has had their membership terminated will not be allowed to purchase a membership to Blessing Wellness Center for a period of at least one calendar year.

5. Wellness Center Operations

- b. Extreme wind chill of -30 degrees Fahrenheit.
- c. Closure of Quincy Public Schools due to road conditions as a result of inclement weather.
- d. Icing resulting in unsafe parking lots and sidewalks.
- e. Other weather related or facility safety issues that warrant closure or any other time the Blessing Wellness Center determines conditions in the facility or on the premises are unsafe.

8.02 - Class Cancellations: Class cancellations due to instructor illness or otherwise are communicated through the Blessing Wellness Center software application via email to all members who have a valid email address on file. Be sure to add the blessingwellnesscenter@blessinghealth.org email address to your list of email account contacts to ensure that Blessing Wellness Center emails are not blocked or sent to spam/junk folder.

8.03 - Unscheduled Maintenance or Unsafe Condition Closure: The Wellness Center may close for unscheduled maintenance when such maintenance is required to ensure the safety of guests, the quality of service, or the structural integrity of the facility and systems.

9. The Blessing Wellness Center Mobile Phone Application

9.01 - Wellness Center Phone Application: The Blessing Wellness Center offers a custom mobile phone application for members. The "Blessing Wellness Center" mobile application may be downloaded at no charge. Search for the application in your phone's "App Store." Benefits of the application include:

- a. Get instant notifications of closures, class cancellations or program changes. App settings must be reviewed to ensure that notifications to the user are turned on.
- b. Update payment methods and review account statements.
- c. Use your mobile app to review updated class schedules.
- d. Enroll in classes.
- e. Use your member account barcode in the app to scan into the facility.

10. Environment of Safety

10.01 - Wellness Center Environment of Safety: In order to promote a safe and secure environment, the Blessing Wellness Center has placed video cameras in various locations to monitor the premises. As part of our commitment to the safety of all members, the Blessing Wellness Center reserves the right to consult public sources to determine whether any member poses an unreasonable risk of harm to its patrons or staff. The Blessing Wellness Center has the authority to make visual recordings, for its responsible use, of all individuals who enter.

10.02 - Safety and Member Responsibility: In order to promote a safe and secure environment, it is your responsibility as a member of the facility to abide by the following:

- a. Do not let anyone into the facility. This applies to another person or group of people trying to gain access by following a member into the facility. This applies to anyone standing at the door, motioning for a member inside of the facility to allow them entry. Every member of the Wellness Center has been assigned and given a key tag to allow access to the facility. It is not your responsibility as a member to let another member into the facility under the premise that the key tag was forgotten or lost.
- b. Report any suspicious or concerning behavior to the Blessing Wellness Center staff. Be sure to give date, time, location and a description of person and/or behavior.
- c. Call 911 in the event of an emergency or if member finds themselves in an unsafe environment. Blessing Security does not monitor the Wellness Center and is not able to respond to emergencies off of the Blessing Hospital main campus.

Please note the above policies are subject to change or modification at any time.*
